On the back of this application please use the space provided to state why you need a scholarship, what you are considering as a career, and any other information that will help our committee judge your application. If this portion is left blank, your application will not be considered.

Attached is a separate form of recommendation for a scholarship to be completed by someone of authority who is not related to you and who has knowledge of your character and your academic potential. The letter of recommendation must be returned in order for you to be considered.

All information will be held in strict confidence. It will be made available only to the individuals serving on the scholarship committee and other appropriate officials who may be included in scholarship selections. A high school and/or college transcript, as well as family financial information from your Student Aid Report, will be needed to complete your scholarship application. Please sign below to authorize the release of this information. All scholarships of Isothermal Community College are available to all on a non-discriminatory basis, without regard to race, sex, age, color, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, genetic information or veteran's status.

I authorize the release of my high school and/or college transcript, along with my family financial information to the scholarship committee and other appropriate officials for the purpose of scholarship selection. If awarded a scholarship, I further authorize the release of academic college transcripts to the scholarship donor each semester.
